

South Mountain Elementary School

Wausau, Wisconsin

P.B.I.S.

The purpose of Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports at South Mountain Elementary School is to create and continue a respectful environment for all, teach and reinforce social skills that will transfer into daily life, establish school-wide behavioral expectations so all students learn, use data to guide our decision-making, and recognize that families are important members of our school community.

